SPECIAL PROGRAMMES OF ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE

Algeria*, China, Indonesia, Jordan, Sri Lanka, Syrian Arab Republic and Yemen: draft resolution

Emergency assistance to the Sudan

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 43/8 of 8 October 1988, 43/52 of 6 December 1988, 44/12 of 24 October 1989, 45/226 of 21 December 1990, 46/178 of 19 December 1991 and 47/162 of 18 December 1992 on assistance to the Sudan,

Noting that despite the progress made in the Sudan Emergency Operation and Operation Lifeline Sudan, considerable relief needs still remain to be addressed, particularly in the areas of non-food assistance, logistics and emergency recovery and rehabilitation,

Recognizing the need in emergency situations to address the continuum of relief, rehabilitation and development,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General 1/ and the statement made by the representative of the Sudan before the Second Committee of the General Assembly on 16 November 1993,

1. Takes note with appreciation of the cooperation between the Government of the Sudan and the United Nations, which has resulted in a number of agreements and arrangements to facilitate relief operations and enhance their efficiency and effectiveness;

---

* On behalf of the African States.

1/ A/48/434.

2. Calls upon the international community to continue to contribute generously to the emergency needs of the country, including the recovery and rehabilitation needs;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to mobilize and coordinate resources and support to the Sudan, to assess the emergency situation in the country and to report to the General Assembly thereon at its forty-ninth session.
